

A BREAKDOWN OF THE “MUSLIM BAN” AN ADVOCACY TOOL FOR IMPACTED COMMUNITIES

WHICH COUNTRIES ARE RESTRICTED | Iran, Iraq, Libya, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, and Yemen.

WHO DOES THIS IMPACT | Visa Holders and Lawful Permanent Residents (Green Card Holders) outside of the United States. Dual nationals and multi-visa holders are also impacted by the ban. There is an indefinite ban on all Syrian refugees.

ADDITIONAL COUNTRIES MAY BE ADDED | The Executive Order has a provision that enables the President to add additional countries at any time.

SCOPE OF TIME | The order is in immediate effect for 90 days and may be extended after that period.

REMAIN IN COUNTRY | Please advise impacted individuals (Undocumented, Visa Holders and Green Card Holders) not to leave the U.S. Their prospects for reentry will be in jeopardy.

RESTRICTION ON MUSLIMS | In addition to the seven listed countries being Muslim-majority, the Executive Order also excludes individuals who “would place violent ideologies over American Law,” which is coded language for Islam.

EXCEPTION FOR CHRISTIAN AND “MINORITY RELIGIONS” | The Order creates exceptions for Christians and members of minority faiths from the seven countries to enter as refugees.

INTERVIEW REQUIREMENT | The Order requires all visa applicants to attend an interview, whereby they will be vetted and interviewed on grounds of political, cultural and religious views.

DOES ORDER INCLUDE DEPORTATIONS | Not at this time. However, subsequent immigrant and counterterrorism measures may function to expose impacted groups to deportation.

IT IS A MUSLIM BAN | The order is specifically tailored to restrict entry of Muslims from seven Muslim-majority countries, so it is a partial “Muslim Ban.” So, call it a “Muslim Ban.”
